Laws of the United States.

Passed at the First Session of the Thirty-Seventh Congress.

[Public—No. 38.]

AN ACT providing for the better organization of the military establishment.

SEC. 14. And be it further enacted, That there may be allowed in hospitals, to be provided under such rules as the surgeon-general of the army, with the approval of the Secretary, may prescribe, such quantities of fresh or preserved fruits, milk or butter, and of eggs, as may be necessary for the proper diet of the sick.

SEC. 15. And be it further enacted, That any commissioned officer of the army, or of the marine corps, who shall have served as such for forty consecutive years, may, upon his own application to the President of the United States, be placed upon the list of retired officers, with the pay and emoluments allowed by this act.

SEC. 16. And be it further enacted, That if any commissioned officer of the army or of the marine corps, shall have become, or shall hereafter become, incapable of performing the duties of his office, he shall be placed upon the retired list and withdrawn from active service and command and from the line of promotion, with the following pay and emoluments, namely: the pay proper of the highest rank held by him at the time of his retirement, whether by staff or regimental commission, and four rations per day, and without any other pay, emoluments, or allowances; and the next officer in rank shall be promoted to the place of the retired officer, according to the established rules of the service. And the same rule of promotion shall be applied successively to the vacancies consequent upon the retirement of an officer: Provided, That should the brevet lieutenant general be retired under this act, it shall be without reduction in his current pay, subsistence, or allowances: And provided further, That there shall not be on the retired list at any one time more than seven per centum of the whole number of officers of the army, as fixed by law.

SEC. 17. And be it further enacted, That, in order to carry out the provisions of this act, the Secretary of War, or Secretary of the Navy, as the case may be, under the direction and approval of the President of the United States, shall, from time to time, as occasion may require, assemble a board of not more than nine, nor less than five commissioned officers, two-fifths of whom shall be of the medical staff; the board, except those taken from the medical staff, to be composed, as far as may be, of his seniors in rank, to determine the facts as to the nature and occasion of the disability of such officers as appear disabled to perform such military service, such board being hereby invested with the powers of a court of inquiry and court-martial, and their decision shall be subject to like revision as that of such courts by the President of the United States. The board, whenever it finds an officer incapacitated for active service, will report whether, in its judgment, the said incapacity result from long and faithful service, from wounds or injury received in the line of duty, from sickness or exposure therein, or from any other incident of service. If so, and the President approve such judgment, the disabled officer shall thereupon be placed upon the list of retired officers, according to the provisions of this act. If otherwise, and if the President concur in opinion with the board, the officer shall be retired as above, either with his pay proper alone, or with his service rations alone, at the discretion of the President, or he shall be wholly retired from the service, with one year's pay and allowances; and in this last case his name shall be thenceforward omitted from the Army Register, or Navy Register, as the case may be: Provided always, That the members of the board shall in every case be sworn to an honorable and impartial discharge of their duties, and that no other officer of the army shall be retired either partially or wholly from the service without having had a fair and full hearing before the board, if, upon due summons, he shall demand it.

SEC. 18. And be it further enacted, That the officers partially retired shall be entitled to wear the uniform of their respective grades, shall continue to be borne upon the Army Register, or Navy Register, as the case may be, and shall be subject to the rules and articles of war, and to trial by general court-martial for any breach of the said articles.

SEC. 19. And be it further enacted, That so much of the sixth section of the act of August twenty-three, eighteen hundred and forty-two, as allows additional or double rations to the commandant of each permanent or fixed post garrisoned with troops, be and the same is hereby repealed.

SEC. 20. And be it further enacted, That officers of the army, when absent from their appropriate duties for a period exceeding six months, either with or without leave, shall not receive the allowances authorized by the existing laws for servants, forage, transportation of baggage, fuel, and quarters, either in kind or in commutation.

SEC. 21. And be it further enacted, That

LATEST BY PONY EXPRESS.

DATES FROM ST. LOUIS TO SEPT. 27.

Progress of the Great Rebellion.

YREKA, Oct. 6, 1861.

Pony arrived at Ruby Valley yesterday at ten o'clock, with dates from St. Joseph to Sept. 27th.

Great activity is reported as going on in South-western Missouri, in military movements, preparatory to an attack upon the rebels at Lexington.

A decisive blow will be struck within a week.

McCullough and Price are said to be in a trap.

It is thought that the rebels will not be able to hold Lexington long.

A rebel scout was captured near Jefferson City. Was to be shot Sept. 25th.

McCullough was reported to be marching rapidly to effect a junction with Price. He is near Lexington, with a force reported at 25,000 men, well supplied with artillery.

The loss on Mulligan's side was 150, on the rebel side 300.

Intercepted letters by Secession members of the Maryland Legislature, shows that traitor members of that body, formed an elaborate scheme for the passage of a secession ordinance, and an attempt to inaugurate rebellion in that state against the Government. Summary measures for repressing it alone saved the state from the horrors of civil war.

It is estimated that Gen. Patterson's campaign in Va. cost the government 10,000,000 of dollars. The result was only the capture of 20 fugitive slaves, all of whom were returned to their masters.

LEAVENWORTH, 24th.

Gen. Lane's command surprised a superior force of rebels at Pappinsville, Mo., routed them taking all their tents and 100 prisoners. A force from Fort Scott defeated a body of rebels, killing their commander, Mathews, on whose person was found an order from Ben McCulloch for the enrolment of Indians.

WASHINGTON, 22d.—It is expected a movement upon Washington will soon be made at several points simultaneously.

Russell, in another letter to the London Times, says that Gen. McClellan is fast improving, and is now thoroughly master of his position.

It is reported that Garibaldi has accepted a command in the U. S. Army.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Sept. 24. The legislature passed a bill authorizing the military department to loan $1,000,000 in addition to the million authorized May 24th, to be appropriated to the defence of the State. The Federals made an advance towards Romney, and drove the enemy 500 strong out of Mechanicsburg on the 24th, advancing on and storming the town, causing the enemy, 1400 strong, infantry and cavalry, to retreat to the mountains, 35 killed and large numbers wounded. Our loss is 3 killed and 10 wounded.

MARYSVILLE, Cal., Oct. 6.—The well-known houses of I. C. Fall & Co., and J. H. Tennant & Co., failed yesterday.

The New York News, Secession, has gone under. The editor, in his last paper, says: "The causes that have led to our suspension, need not recapitulation." It was the paper that was suspended—not the editor.

The "Wood Dynasty" in New York (Ben Wood was the editor of the News) favor Secession. Men of all parties in New York city will unite to crush it out, at the coming election. There will only be one ticket in opposition to the Wood ticket—that of the "Union" party.

Some fifteen Secessionists—"peace" traitors—have been arrested in Maryland and sent to Fortress Monroe. May, the member of Congress, and Howard, the peace party candidate for Governor, are among them. They are for "peace"—like our Advertiser, they want Jeff. Davis "let alone."

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

No flag but the Old Flag—the Red, White and Blue,
With the stars of a Union unbroken and true:
Arise and defend it! ye sons of the brave,
Whose blood bought the banner your valor must save

FRIDAY MORNING, OCT., 11, 1861.

Departure of Col. Nesmith and Capt. Staples.

Yesterday was a most beautiful day. The sun shone out gloriously. The air was bland as Spring. The steamer Pacific prepared to leave the wharf in the evening. Col. Nesmith, Senator for Oregon, with his family, were passengers. Capt. G. W. Staples, long and favorably known here as commander of ocean steamers, was about to make his last trip to San Francisco as commander of the Pacific—having received the commission of Commander in the United States Navy. Our citizens felt the respect due them—Col. Nesmith, as our U. S. Senator, charged with important duties; and Capt. Staples about to enter upon active naval duty for the country—to give them parting salutes. They did so. A national salute of thirteen guns was fired in compliment to Senator Nesmith; and a Commodore's salute of seven guns, in compliment to Capt. Staples.

In the exigencies of the country, we can congratulate our State, that Col. Nesmith is in the Senate. In all circumstancies, he will do his duty, faithfully and fearlessly. He is a Union man all over—and will sustain the Government to the last man and the last dollar, in crushing this rebellion. Capt. Staples is a tried sailor, a gentleman, a brave man, qualified for his new position—and his country will be well served by him.

The best wishes of our patriotic citizens go with these gentlemen to their new fields of usefulness and honor.

Shirking and Skulking.

The editor of the Advertiser says that we hold it responsible for the treasonable sentiments and lying statements published in his paper. We do most decidedly. We hold the editor responsible for the tone of his paper. If his editorials and those extracts he publishes evince sympathy at all times for the rebels in arms against the government, we hold that the editor is responsible. He is morally and legally responsible. To publish false and treasonable statements, written by correspondents, knowing them to be such, and endeavor to skulk from responsibility, is an attempt at the meanest duplicity and the lowest species of cowardice.

On the 8th instant, it published an article, which contained these words:

"We have every reason to invoke Divine interposition to stay the hand of Lincoln, parallyze his efforts and thus put a stop to the unnatural, intestine war that he has inaugurated and carried on."

The Advertiser in publishing this infamous paragraph, is careful not to say that he disapproves of it; and we have the best reasons in his previous course, to know that he does approve every letter and word of it. And what does this editor say? That he has every reason to invoke God to bring disasters upon our arms. And for what? To give the rebels the control of the Government and country. And why? Because, he asserts that Lincoln has brought this rebellion upon the country.

Now, we say that this invocation of the Advertiser editor is treason to the country;—that his prayer that our arms shall be paralyzed so that the rebels shall triumph, is treason to the country; that his declaration that Lincoln inaugurated this war is a brazen falsehood.

There is no duplicity in these remarks. We use as plain words as we possibly can.—No man can mistake their meaning.

The fume and fuss and throwing out flings of abolition against the Oregonian, we regard very lightly. What else could the Advertiser do or say than to make use of big words and small words, "full of sound and fury, signifying nothing?" They pass us as the idle wind. We charge the quotation made as treason, and blasphemy—based as it is on known FALSEHOOD.

Hatteras Inlet.

It seems to have been the intention of the Government, in fitting out the expedition to Hatteras, to take and destroy the Forts at the Inlet, and then go about two and a half miles up the channel to the westward, to a spot known as the Bulkhead, and sink a stone-boat across the channel, which is here not more than seventy-five to one hundred yards wide, thus effectually sealing up the port of Newbern. But Gen. Butler, on reaching the ground, thought the best interests of the country would be served by adopting a diametrically different course; so the forts were garrisoned instead of destroyed, and the stone-boats were anchored under the guns of the forts instead of being sunk at the Bulkhead. If the way up to Newbern had been blocked, not only would the privateers have been excluded, but our own light-draft vessels could not have got up to the place to make an attack and recapture the fifty three prizes which lie anchored in that port. By retaining the two forts at Hatteras, we shall command the whole coast of North Carolina and the direct route to Norfolk, and establish a coaling station 150 miles nearer our blockading squadron than Hampton Roads.

The North Carolina secession press deplores the loss of the Forts at the Inlet. The Raleigh correspondent of the Petersbug Press says:

"Sad are my feelings. Our coast is certainly in possession of the Yankees. They entered Hatteras Inlet on yesterday and took possession of our batteries and men there.—From accounts I suppose their entrance was effected with very little trouble. So the defence of our coast at that important point has amounted to nothing at all. And yet there has been every warning which prudent men ought to require in regard to our coast defence. The insecurity of our coast has been represented by legislators, private citizens, and military men. And with all this warning the Yankees have come upon us entirely unprepared, so far as effectiveness is concerned. Who is to blame, I do not pretend to say, but there certainly is blame somewhere. The entrance of the Yankees into our waters amounts to this: The whole of the eastern part of the State is now exposed to the ravages of the merciless vandals. Newbern, Washington, Plymouth, Edenton, Harford, Elizabeth City, are all now exposed, besides the whole of the adjacent country. Our State is now plunged into a great deal of trouble which certainly could have been avoided had the proper steps been taken. Females are leaving the eastern part of the State rapidly, and coming here and going elsewhere. There is great agitation now throughout the State as far as this news reached."

THE REMOVAL OF THE TROOPS.—The Mountaineer says:

"These four companies, and a detachment of one hundred men, acting as an escort to Lieut. Mullan's Road party, comprise all the Federal troops east of the Cascade Mountains, and these are under orders to report at San Francisco, whence it is understood they will immediately be ordered to the East."

Whatever is to be done to supply the places of these troops to be removed, whether it be by sending a volunteer force from California, or raising a volunteer force here, should be promptly done. Col. Wright fully understands the condition of affairs here and in Washington, and it cannot be supposed that he will be forgetful of the interests of the Government and the people here.

THE SECRETARY OF THE NAVY.—The New Haven Palladium says:

We learn from a friend recently from Hartford that Secretary Welles has been of late so constantly occupied night and day, that when his wife recently went home from Washington he requested her to write her letters to him in as few lines as possible, as he could not find time to read long letters, even from her. What a comment this upon his slanderers.

CONTRADICTED.—The New York correspondent of the Bulletin says that there is not a particle of truth in the statement that England is about sending a reinforcement of 23,000 men to Canada. The whole story originated in a newspaper rumor, having no foundation. The numerous indignation crushers, and the ill-suppressed gratulation which loyal newspapers have published may go for nought.

CALIFORNIA TROOPS ORDERED EAST.—From the Bulletin of the 1st, we learn that the statement of our telegraphic correspondent that the regular troops stationed in California have been ordered home is, correct. General Sumner received orders by the last Pony to hold in readiness all of the regulars, except four companies of artillery—to start for the east at short notice. This would include three regiments of infantry, the 4th, 6th and 9th; the 1st regiment of cavalry and the 3d regiment of artillery. The four companies of artillery to remain are to garrison the harbor of San Francisco, and the places of the regulars who are to leave will be filled by the volunteers already enlisted and to enlist. The rumor that Gen. Sumner is to take command of the returning regiments appears to have no foundation, as he has had no information of his transfer from the Pacific Department.—Marysville Appeal, Oct. 23.

COL. BAKER'S SON.—A Washington letter of Sept. 10th says:

Captain Baker, son of Colonel Baker, and a Captain in the California regiment, with a scouting party, captured last night a Major, Lieutenant and five privates of a Virginia regiment. The officers deny that they are officers, in spite of their uniforms.

Soldier's Pay.

The young men of this State will find some interesting information in the following article:

At the recent session of Congress a bill was passed materially increasing the pay of soldiers. The extent and nature of the increase not being generally understood, we have been at some pains to ascertain the actual pay of soldiers mustered into the service of the United States, and more particularly the volunteers called for under the proclamation of Governor Whiteaker. All soldiers, as is well known receive rations, clothing, fuel, and medical attendance at the expense of Government. Any or all these articles can be drawn by the soldier, or he can commute them and draw their actual cash value at whatever post he may be stationed. In addition to having all his wants provided for, the private soldier in a cavalry company is allowed $31 per month, or $372 per annum by way of compensation, nearly every dollar of which the prudent man can save. The pay of a sergeant is $36 per month; farriers and blacksmiths, $34; corporals, $33; and bugler, $32. At his discharge the soldier who has faithfully complied with the terms of his enlistment, will receive a bounty of $100, and a land warrant worth from $140 to $160. At this rate the payment for three years' service as a private will be $1,366—nearly the whole of which can be saved by the practice of due economy. The term of enlistment is an objection with very many. Three years is a long time to serve, and they hesitate to enter into an engagement that binds them to a military life for so long a term. The intention is to secure their services during the continuance of the war, but certainly no one supposes that the war will last three years, or even one-third of that time. Civil wars have always been of short duration, and we have no reason to suppose that the war that now desolates the Eastern States will prove an exception to the rule. The supposition then is, that the volunteers mustered into the service will be discharged inside of a year. This being the case, the volunteer will find himself, at the expiration of his term of enlistment, in possession of $372 as his yearly pay, a bounty of $100, and a land warrant worth $150, making a total of $672. A clever "stake," and more than many a rich man has had when he commenced the "battle of life." We have here enumerated the inducements that are offered the young man who feels disposed to serve the country. That there is a dark side to the picture, we do not doubt, but in the matter of pay, we think there are but few young men who will injure their prospects in life by engaging in the service of the country.—Mountaineer.

EFFECTS OF THE CAPTURE OF FORT HATTERAS.—The St. Louis correspondent of the Alta says: "The moral effect of the capture of the Hatteras forts upon the Union men of North Carolina has been most striking. They are pouring in by hundreds to Hatteras Inlet, to take the oath of allegiance to the Federal Government, and otherwise demonstrating their fidelity to the only authority that can preserve their State from the horrors of a despotism, which is endeavoring to overrun the whole South. The loyal citizens of North Carolina have, perhaps, been made the victims of this despotism as much as any of the border States. On the 28th of February last, the people of North Carolina voted on the proposition of the Legislature to call a State Convention, and the following was the result:

Against Convention	47,269
For Convention	46,627
Majority against Convention	642

Of those who voted for a Convention, it was said that over one-half were Union men who took the affirmative side, under the impression that our difficulties might be healed by a body of representatives of the people. Notwithstanding that there was a clear majority of the voters opposed to a Convention, as it was exhibited through the ballot box, Governor Ellis convened the Legislature in extra session, on the first of May, for the express purpose of having a bill passed calling a regular Secession Convention, which was done in conformity with the Governor's wishes. On the 20th of May, the Convention so authorized met at Raleigh; and on the following day they tumbled the old North State out of the Union. Is there any wonder, then, that after this proceeding loyal men flock to the standard of the country whenever an opportunity offers? Governor Ellis, after thus endeavoring to deal death and destruction to the State, soon succumbed to the fell destroyer himself, for he died immediately after the consummation of this nefarious scheme.

Two hundred North Carolinians have joined the Federal forces at Hatteras. There is not the least manner of doubt but that there are thousands throughout the State who will enrol themselves under the old flag whenever it shall again be unfurled. It is stated that preparations are being made for another expedition.

Commander Rowan has written a letter to the Secretary of the Navy, dated United States steamer Pawnee, Hatteras Inlet, September 5th, of which the following is an extract:

"In a communication addressed to the Commander-in-Chief at Hampton Roads, I informed him that I forwarded seven of the fugitives in the Peabody, to be landed at Hampton Roads, supplying them with provisions to last them there. Another of the fugitives of this party I have retained to act as pilot in these waters, should his services be required. From the best information I can obtain, ten regiments have been recalled from Virginia to defend the State. The Secessionists residing near the water are deserting their residences, and seeking shelter in the interior. The poorer classes remain, waiting for protection to avow their Union sentiments.'"

[Conc'uded from first page]

any officer of the navy who has been forty years in the service of the United States may, upon his own application to the President of the United States, be placed upon the list of retired officers of the navy, and shall receive the pay and emoluments allowed by this act

Sec 22 And be it further enacted, That if any officer of the navy shall have become or shall hereafter become, incapable of performing the duties of his office, he shall be placed upon the retired list and withdrawn from active service and command and from the line of promotion, with the following pay and emoluments, namely

Captains in the navy, thirteen hundred dollars;

Commanders in the navy, eleven hundred dollars,

Lieutenants in the navy, one thousand dollars;

Surgeons ranking with captains, thirteen hundred dollars

Surgeons ranking with commanders, eleven hundred dollars

Surgeons ranking with lieutenants, one thousand dollars,

Paymasters ranking with captains, thirteen hundred dollars ,

Paymasters ranking with commanders, eleven hundred dollars ;

Paymasters ranking with lieutenants, one thousand dollars ,

Chief engineers one thousand dollars ;

First assistant engineers, seven hundred dollars,

Second assistant engineers, five hundred dollars ,

Third assistant engineers, four hundred dollars ;

Masters, four hundred dollars

Passed midshipmen, three hundred and fifty dollars; and with four rations per day to each of the above-named officers of the navy, to be commuted at thirty cents, each ration, and without any other pay or allowances Captains, commanders, and lieutenants now on the retired list of the navy shall receive the same compensation and no greater than is allowed to retired officers of the same rank by the provisions of this act. The next officer in rank shall be promoted to the place of the retired officer, according to the established rules of the service. And the same rule of promotion shall be applied successively to the vacancies consequent upon the retirement of an officer.

Sec. 23 And be it further enacted That whenever any officer of the navy, on being ordered to perform the duties appropriated to his commission, shall report himself to be unable to comply with such order, or whenever, in the judgement of the President of the United States, an officer of the navy shall be in any way incapacitated from performing the duties of his office, the President, at his discretion, shall direct the Secretary of the Navy to refer the case of such officer to a board of not more than nine, and not less than five commissioned officers, two-fifths of whom shall be members of the Medical Bureau of the Navy ; the Board, except those taken from the Medical Bureau, to be composed, if possible, (as far as may be,) of his seniors in rank. The determination of the board in each case shall, with a record of its proceedings, be transmitted to the Secretary of the Navy, to be laid before the President for his approval or disapproval, and orders in the case. The board, whenever it finds an officer incapacitated for active service, will report whether, in its judgment, the incapacity results from long and faithful service, from wounds or injury received in the line of duty from sickness or exposure therein, or from any other incident of service If so, and the President approve of such judgment, the disabled officer shall thereupon be placed upon the list of retired officers, according to the provisions of this act ; but if such disability or incompetency proceeded from other causes, and the President concur in opinion with the board, the officer may be retired upon furlough pay, or he shall be wholly retired from the service, with one year's pay, at the discretion of the President ; and in this last case his name shall be wholly omitted from the Navy Register. The members of the board shall, in every case, be sworn to an honest and impartial discharge of their duties, and no officer of the navy shall be retired, either partially or wholly, from the service without having had a fair and full hearing before the board if he shall demand it.

Sec. 24. And be it further enacted, That the retired officers shall be entitled to wear the uniform of their respective grades, shall continue to be borne upon the Navy Register, shall be subject to the rules and articles governing the navy, and to trial by general court-martial

Sec 25. And be it further enacted That retired officers of the army, navy, and marine corps may be assigned to such duties as the President may deem them capable of performing, and such as the exigencies of the public service may require.
